DUBOIS COUNTY RESIDENT ARRESTED FOR TAX EVASION

John W. Disinger, a Dubois County resident, was arrested Wednesday, May 1, 2002, for allegedly collecting over $90,000.00 in trust taxes and failing to pay those taxes to the state.

The charges against Disinger are a result of an investigation by the Criminal Investigation Division of the Indiana Department of Revenue into the business practices of two former businesses in Petersburg and Ottwell that Disinger operated in 1997, 1998 and 1999.

Disinger is charged with two counts of theft, two counts of failure to remit sales tax, and one count of failure to remit withholding tax.

The criminal charges were filed with the Pike County Prosecuting Attorney. The Indiana State Police Department made the arrest.
